AVE MARIA

Music by Franz Schubert, interpreted by Andrea Bocelli. Inspired by its universal meaning of Hope, and specially performed today as the dancer's farewell after 8 years of professional career in different ballet companies and stages. We proudly present Galmont Ballet alumna Daliana Gutierrez.

DANZONETTE

Music by Afro-Cuban group 'Palo'. Inspired by Afro-Cuban and Afro-Caribbean rhythms. It's about the mythological story of 'Obatala', goddess of peace, harmony and joy. Based on a 'Yoruba' legend, "Obatala" appears to bring peace during the time two tribes are strongly divided. The choreographer created an energetic and happy piece set to a musical fusion background of 'Lukumi' folklore, jazz and salsa.

Dancers: 'Obatala' Daliana Gutierrez. Dancers in black: Alyssa Perkins, Rebekah Hartwig, Avery Hammond, Sofia Muniz. Dancers in red: Maria Slate, Morgan Hammond, Reagan Ramsey, Darya Chaharom.
